

UNITED STATES MINT IN NEW ORLEANS.

JOINT RESOLUTION
OF
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF LOUISIANA, REGARDING

The United States mint in the city of New Orleans.

APRIL 10, 1876.—Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and ordered to be printed.

STATE OF LOUISIANA,
OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE,
New Orleans, March 28, 1876.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit to you a copy of joint resolution:
(No. 54) regarding the United States mint in the city of New Orleans.
Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

N. DURAND,
Assistant Secretary of State.

Hon. FRANK MOREY, M. C.

In view of the fact that the receipts of silver bullion and coin imported at New Orleans are estimated at seven millions of dollars in value, and that the operating of the United States mint in said city, now in disuse, is urgently required by the necessities of commerce: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the senate and house of representatives of the State of Louisiana in general assembly convened, That the United States Senators from Louisiana be instructed and her Representatives in Congress be requested to urge upon the Congress of the United States for the providing for the re-establishment and operating of the assay-office and United States mint located in New Orleans, and for the appropriating of the sum of one hundred thousand dollars for such purpose.

E. D. ESTILETTE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
C. C. ANTOINE,

Lieutenant-Governor and President of the Senate.

Approved March 20, 1876.

WM. P. KELLOGG,
Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy:
N. DURAND,
Assistant Secretary of State.
